

THERE IS POWER

IN A UNION.

"If the workers of the world want to win, all they have to do is recognize their own solidarity. They have nothing to do but fold their arms & the world will stop. The workers are more powerful with their hands in their pockets than all the property of the capitalists. As long as the workers keep their hands in their pockets, the capitalists cannot put theirs there. With passive resistance, with the workers absolutely refusing to move, lying absolutely silent, they are more powerful than all the weapons & instruments that the other side has for attack." —Joe Ettor, Industrial Workers of the World organizer, during the great Lawrence textile strike of 1912.

Labor Day greetings from:

Libertarian Left

Are you against government privileges for the economically powerful and bureaucratic regulation of unions? For individual liberty, mutual aid, worker solidarity, and fighting unions controlled by rank-and-file workers? Want to meet like-minded people? Check out:
